Dear Sir

FLYING OFFICER MALCOLM RAVENHILL

Many thanks for your letter concerning the career and history of your cousin Flying Officer Malcolm Ravenhill. You mentioned in your letter that he served with 229 Squadron during the Battle of Britain and that he was killed in a Hurricane on 30 September 1940. I am, unfortunately, not able to help much because we are currently 229 Operational Conversion Unit and were formerly 65 (Fighter) Squadron during the Battle of Britain operating Spitfires.

You have obviously contacted the RAF Museum at Hendon. What I suggest you do is contact Mr Graham Day at the Air Historical Branch, MOD, London. Mention that I referred you to him - he is a good friend of mine and he will offer any further information.

Good luck to you in this project. If I can be of any further assistance, then please let me know.

Yours faithfully

P JACOBS
